

Quiz: pgs. 93-120

1. Short Answer Question: Explain how Princess Buttercup demonstrates bravery in this section. Give at least one specific example (concrete detail).

Answer: When they put her on the boat and threaten to put her in the water, she must be brave because she can't even see. She doesn't know if the man is really cutting himself and she really doesn't know if there are even sharks.

2. Question: Prince Humperdinck announces that he will marry Princess Buttercup on Florin's 500th anniversary.

Answer: True

3. Question: The Sicilian Crowd was hired to

Answer: Kidnap and kill the Princess, making it look like Guilder had done it.

4. Question: "Morgenstern" uses a common literary device to tell the reader about Inigo's and Fezzik's childhoods. What is this common literary device?

Answer: Flashback

5. Question: Why is it important for the reader to know about Inigo's and Fezzik's childhoods?

Answer: So the reader will understand what motivates them through the rest of the book.

6. Question: What threatens to harm Buttercup after she jumps into the water?

Answer: Sharks

7. Question: What does Inigo say is "his great, his only, love" ?

Answer: The six-fingered sword